

Limits should not be removed on the number of TV/Radio stations that can be owned by one person/company. We need diversity of opinion, not one opinion. That is the purpose of the current limits; let's protect freedom of information and freedom of speech.